ISLAND DATES NOT TO MISS

BY AVA ROSALES

This winter, dates are back and we've honed in on a few exciting activities that will sizzle the senses with flavors and festivals. This is the season for costumes and cuisine. You won't want to miss the action – so, come lime, lounge, linger or just let yourself go, cause it's carnival time in the Caribbean!

At the top of the year, say “bon dia” to Curaçao Fuik Day (Fuikdag) 2024 on January 7. The term fuik is Dutch for trap, and from 8:00 am – 5:00 pm, it's one grand party trap atop the sea. There's bound to be a lot of “mi dushi” (my love/sweetie) greetings when every and anything that's buoyant come together for a big BYOB celebration- be sure to sip responsibly, whether by float or boat! It's the perfect start to Carnival season on the island. There will be vibrant costumes, marches, parades, bands and lots of jump up festivities and food. There are separate horse, youth and teen parades. At Festival di Tumba – the competition is fierce to win the coveted title of king. You won't want to miss a single event if travel plans accommodate the two months of festivities. Curaçao Karnaval 2024 hosts nonstop events across the island January through February
www.curacaokarnaval.com/en

Further north, the British Virgin Islands (BVI) is more focused on cuisine and takes us on a diverse dining experience every Saturday, during the months of January and February. Ferry across for Jost Lime and Dine where guests staying on Tortola can hop aboard the ferry at West End to dine or lime – chill/relax – on Jost Vandyke. Ferries leave Tortola at 6 pm and the last returning trip is at 10:45 pm. Hop aboard any Saturday from January 6 to February 24. Stay until March to close the season with an event that Virgin Gorda promises to be “bigger and tastier than ever!” Residents and guests gather for tantalizing delights, wine and entertainment at Taste of Virgin Gorda 2024, Saturday, March 16.

To the west, over at the Ritz Carlton on Grand Cayman, it's the 15th year of a culinary celebration of some of the finest cuisine in the world. The renowned celebration is back and boasts to be an unforgettable indulgence in food and wine on the shores of Grand Cayman, at Cayman Cookout from January 9 – 15.

ARUBA

The new Mercát Restaurant delights the senses with Mediterranean flavors at the Aruba Marriott Resort & Stellaris Casino. The name literally means market in Catalan. It's an international smorgasbord of mediterranean inspired dishes across Spain, Southern France, Italy, Greece, Turkey, Lebanon, and Morocco.

Apart from the array of menu selections, the second hardest decision would be whether to dine indoors or al fresco with scenic ocean views. Perhaps mix it up, since the restaurant opens daily for a breakfast buffet, and a la carté lunch and dinner options. Savory and sweet fare highlights include starters of Mussels a la Provençale with Provençal herbs, onion, garlic, white wine, and grilled sourdough; scrumptious Fried Zucchini Chips with Tzatziki dip; and for the main course a mouthwatering Short Rib Pasta with paccheri pasta, short rib ragù, parmesan and lemon zest or perhaps a vegetarian delight of Couscous Paella with green beans, bell peppers, mushrooms and pickled veggies- just be sure to leave room for the Moroccan Chocolate Cake with dates, pistachio and caramel.

Mingle at the Apertivo social gathering to meet new friends or get more acquainted with your familiar as you feast on a host of tapas, music, wines and cocktails. This experience is ideally situated at Mercat's bar and beachfront terrace during the after lunch and before dinner snack-happy hours. This is dining done right. Even the lighting and Southern European music are programmed to vary throughout the day, adding to a fresh ambience for each visit - - just as fresh as the fare, all senses are tantalized at Mercát Restaurant.

Island Time

ESCAPE TO THE BAHAMIAN OUT ISLANDS AND THE RECENTLY RENOVATED

Abaco Beach Resort

Today travellers want an authentic, uncrowded, pristine experience, which is exactly what awaits in the Abaco Islands and its premier property, Abaco Beach Resort. The resort and marina are owned by two Bahamians Manny Alexiou and Andrew Sweeting who have an affinity for boating and island hopping.

The Abacos are known for their wild beauty, azure waters, sandy beaches, emerald hills, six national parks and the best boating in the Bahamas.

Located just 165-miles off the coast of Florida on Great Abaco in the 120-mile chain of islands and cays that comprise the islands of the Abacos, the Abaco Beach Resort recently completed a massive renovation and expansion.

Devastated by Hurricane Dorian, the 2019 storm that was the worst natural disaster in the Bahamas history, the Abaco Beach Resort bounced back better than ever. The resort renovated all its 94 rooms, added deluxe accommodation options, created a fine dining Bistro and a new al fresco restaurant poolside, and built the largest marina in the Bahamas.

“The new look is sleek, modern, and sizzles with a fresh energy,” said newly appointed General Managers Andrei & Antonia Mocanu. “It’s breathed new life into this historic property.”

New Amenities

All accommodations at the 40-acre beachfront resort boast an ocean view and a patio or balcony to enjoy it from. In addition to rooms, the property offers one-bedroom oceanfront suites, and updated two-bedroom residences, and a three-bedroom penthouse. All are equipped with high-end Parachute linen from New York and Molton Brown amenities.

“Our Residence accommodations are perfect for multi-generational family travel and offer a more private, luxurious experience,” Andrei said.

Foodies will delight at the new dining venues unveiled in the resort’s renovation. The casual Pool Bar and Terrace at Marinaville is open all day. Breakfast features classics like Eggs Benedict, while the lunch and dinner menus are packed with local fare like cracked conch and a decadent lobster burger. A variety of salads, pizzas, sandwiches and main courses like Surf & Turf with Bahamian lobster and fillet are also on offer.

The Iconic Abaco Beach Resort is pleased to welcome renowned Executive Chef Rome’ha Forbes to lead its culinary team. A 20-year veteran in the culinary industry, Rome’ha started his stellar career at the age of 16 as an Apprentice Chef at the then Radisson Cable Beach Resort, Nassau, and has since traveled and worked throughout the Bahamas Archipelago perfecting his skills.

Born in the tourism mecca of Nassau, Bahamas, Chef Rome’ha has served as Executive Chef for luxury boutique resorts including Grand Isle Resort, Exuma, and The Abaco Club on Winding Bay, Abaco.

Chef Rome’ha is thrilled to launch his inventive infused Caribbean and Bahamian delicacies at the discerning and quintessential Bistro gourmet restaurant and raise the bar with his authentic menu creation at the acclaimed Alfresco style Terrace at Marinaville overlooking the Resort’s state-of-the-art 200 slip marina.

“Chef Forbes impressive culinary training and skills have allowed Abaco to now offer some of the finest dining in the islands,” said Antonia.

Boating and Fishing Mecca

Perhaps the biggest undertaking in the renovation was the creation of a modern 200-slip marina in Marsh Harbour. The marina can host pleasure boats, sport fishing boats and super yachts up to 200 ft. in length. Customs and Immigration services are onsite. It's an impressive addition to a resort that was already known for its world-famous fishing tournaments.

Abaco Beach Resort will host four of the top billfish tournaments in the world in 2023. Skip's tournaments include the Blue Marlin Tournament, White Marlin Roundup, The Shootout, which pits production boats against custom craft, and the Custom Shootout, featuring 50 custom boat teams. It is the most elite collection of sport fishing boats in one location.

"We're thrilled to host not one, but four of the top sport fishing events in The Bahamas," said Mocuano. "The tournaments bring the best in the sport to Abaco and an exciting atmosphere to the resort."

Island Hopping

The charm of the Abaco's lies in the ability to easily hop between the many islands. If you are an experienced captain or not, both can make use of the very safe waterways between the islands.

From the new marina set sail to photograph the nearby candy-cane striped lighthouse of Hope Town on Elbow Cay and enjoy the sandy, coconut-tree lined Tahiti Beach. On Man O War Cay you can visit with shipbuilders, and at Pelican Cays National Park soak in the beauty of the shallow coral gardens.

Nature lovers should plan to explore Great Guana Cay known for its vast Elkhorn coral reefs, sea turtles, and migrating birds. Don't miss stopping in the local's favorite, Nipper's Beach Bar for a lively island party any time of day.

These are just a few stops you can take in a just under 100 miles of sheltered waterway known as the Sea of Abaco with many surrounding cays and islands to visit.

Down Time

While the Abacos provide plenty of outdoor adventures and cute towns to explore, no vacation to these laid-back islands would be complete without some down time to relax, rejuvenate and return home more balanced.

The Abaco Beach Resort offers a private white sand beach for guests to grab a chaise to lounge in, sunbathe, read or enjoy sipping an island cocktail. When you're ready to jump in the water, complimentary kayaks, paddle boards and snorkelling gear are available. Our beach bar offers snacks & drinks and lead the Bahama Buddies Program for all kids 4-12 years. The program offers visiting children the opportunity to learn about the island life from a resident child ambassador by spending an afternoon participating in authentic island activities and crafts.

For many no vacation is complete without some spa pampering. At Abaco Beach Resort the masseuse comes to you, whether you want your massage in a beachside cabana or in the privacy of your room.
